

A Voyage on the Tribal Warrior

Built in the Torres Strait more than 100 years ago as a pearling lugger, it now promotes awareness of the Aboriginal community

*This is a story of reconciliation.
This is the meaning:
Let us come together and talk peace*

The Tribal Warrior Association uses the boat to train Aboriginal youth to attain their Master Class V Commercial
Maritime Certificate

What is Virtual? What is Reality?

The theme of this conference suggests that online learning is something that is becoming real, becoming mainstream....

I want to suggest that online learning will help education itself become real...

My Thesis:
Online learning moves education of out the text-based language- based classroom and into the community... and thereby makes it more real

A Range of Reality...

TEXT --- STORIES --- SIMULATION --- EXPERIENCE

Less Real

More Abstract

Less Similar

Less Interaction

More Real

Less Abstract

More Similar

More Interaction

The written word, powerful as it is, is an abstraction, at remove from what it represents, and therefore vague, subject to ambiguity and multiple interpretation

Text is virtual
It is the most virtual
The term virtual reality was most applicable when the internet was text-based

Speech could not endure what the mind conceives

We make learning more real
through storytelling

- The personal experience and the interaction of the teacher takes learning beyond text and makes it more real for the learner

There are many forms of storytelling

Our art and artistry tell of our history, our culture

There are many forms of storytelling

Music and theatre create a wider range of experience, stimulating more senses, touching us emotionally

But it's even better when we participate, interact...

When we ourselves become the story

Most online learning stops here

- It focuses on the text...
- If it's good, it adds an element of dialogue, of storytelling

»But if it seems virtual, it's because it is virtual...

- We can do so much more...

For example: What does learning 2.0 mean to me?

<http://www.flickr.com>

- A place to store (and share) my videos

What does Learning 2.0 mean for a learner?

Three Views of Learning Resources:

1. Learning Resources as a thing

- Book, content object, etc

2. Learning Resources as events

- Class, lecture, seminar, meeting

- The first two models are information-theoretic and medium-based models
  - They stress content
  - They stress rules

3. Learning Resources as flow

- Stresses experience
- Stresses pattern recognition

What does this look like?

- User generated Content
  - Personal, opinionated

- Network of interactions

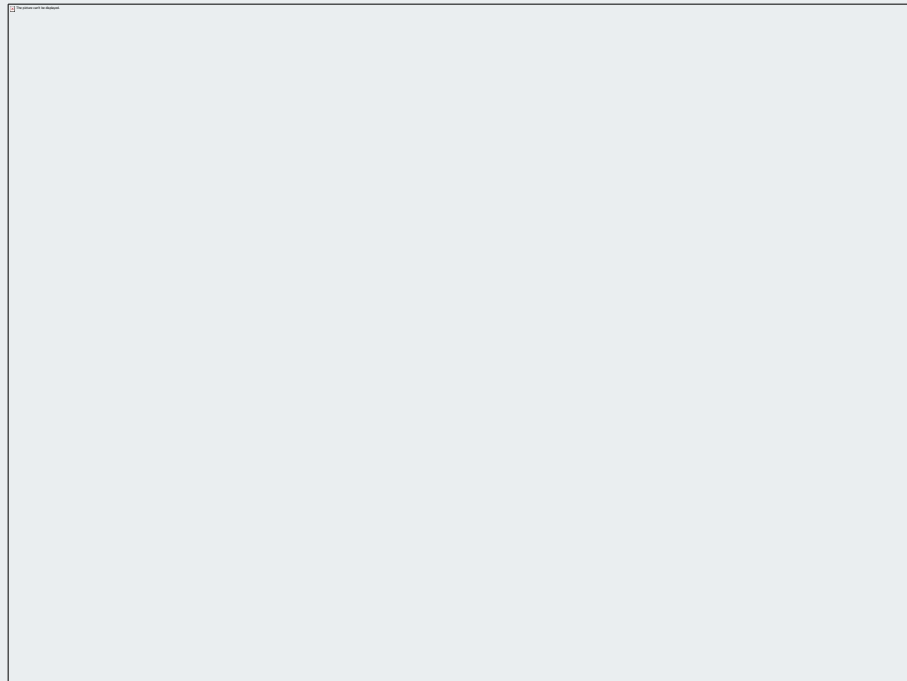

- Immersive Learning

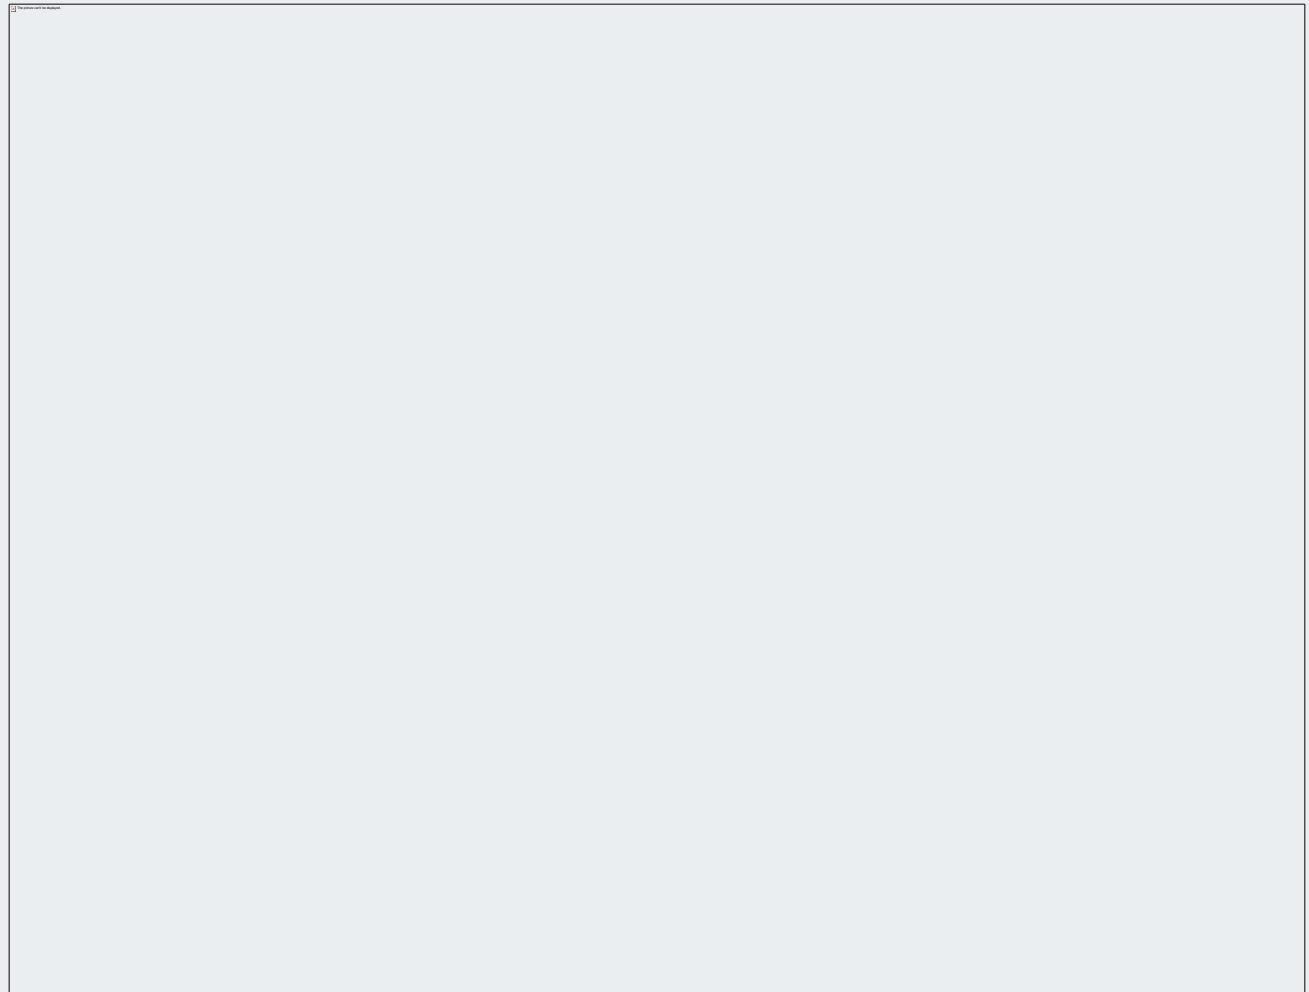

- New Roles

- For students - as creators of learning
- For teachers - as coaches and mentors
- For the rest of us - as teachers

Learning as a network phenomenon...

- Web of user-generated content (eg. Wikipedia)...

<http://www.wikipedia.org>

- Social networks and communities (entails a genuinely portable (and owned) identity

<http://www.facebook.com>

- Networks of interactions (aggregate, remix, repurpose, feed forward) – syndication

Even though we are epistemologically shut off from the “ocean of consequences,” it is critical to be conscientious of the immense power an action can have.

How to Learn

When you learn, you are trying to create patterns of connectivity in your brain. You are trying to connect neurons together, and to strengthen that connection.

new tech

New technologies give us choice

The world is (quite literally) what we make it

(just ask the people who made Second Life)

When you realize you have the power to choose what you are doing, you realize you have the power to choose the consequences.

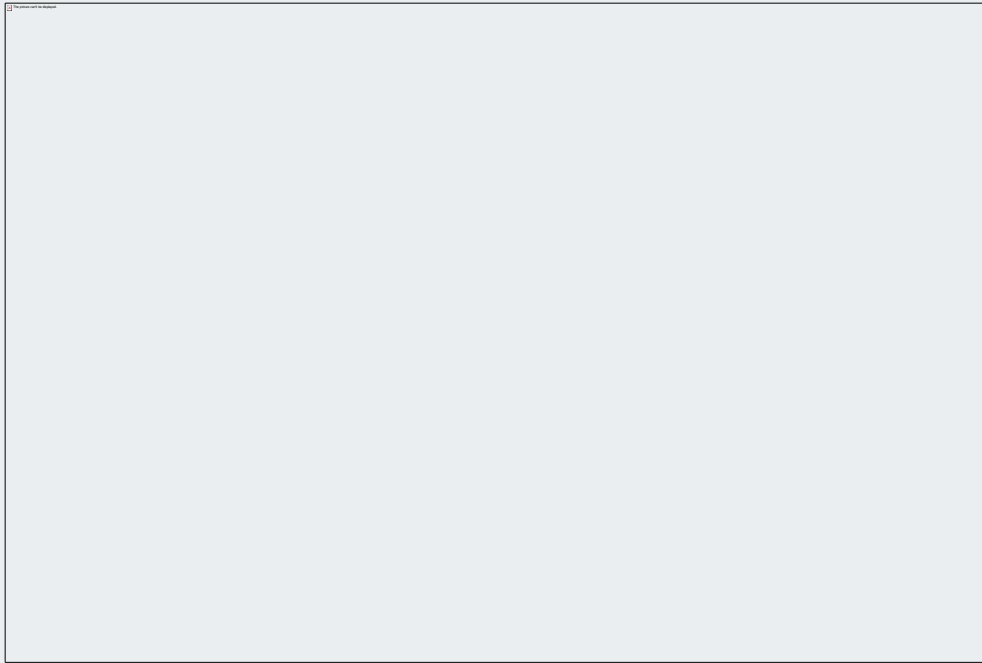

Everything you do has meaning
